Food Regulation Partnership™

ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH AUSTRALIA (NEW SOUTH WALES) INCORPORATED

FOOD SURVEILLANCE SCHOOL
- 1 Day Advanced Workshop -

WEDNESDAY 24 AUGUST 2011

HOLROYD CENTRE, MILLER STREET, MERRYLANDS.

With the implementation of the food regulation partnership (FRP) between the NSW Food Authority and Local Government, the Name and Shame Register, the trial of both Scores-On-Doors and standardised inspection templates, Councils are currently undergoing the biggest shake up of food surveillance in years.

We have revamped our annual Food Surveillance School and promise to deliver EHOs the most informative and comprehensive food surveillance learning experience available in the three day School.

This year we are able to offer one-day registration for the 'Advanced Training' on Wednesday 24 August 2011.

Our speakers have been selected on the basis of their industry expertise and knowledge.

The 'Advanced' Day topics are:

- NSWFA Training, FRP & Scores-on Doors Update
- Food Surveillance Training
- Food Safety Standards Explained
- Half Day Prosecution Techniques Seminar & Mock Trial

The 'Advanced' Day, Wednesday includes a half-day legal prosecution seminar and mock trial for EHOs
